

Tomato COBRA 26 F1

Lycopersicon esculentum L.

"Our variety for all conditions!"

One of the varieties of the Technisem range which combines tolerances to TYLCV and to Bacterial Wilt, COBRA 26 F1 insures productivity and viability to Sahelian and tropical areas producers who have to confront pressures more and more complex. COBRA 26 F1 produces in abundance uniform square fruits. Its firmness insures a very good conservation after the

Plant

- Determinate
- Very good vigor
- Very good productivity

Maturity

- Very good maturity: first harvest from 65 days after planting

Fruit

- Square fruit with medium size (80-90 gr)
- Uniform coloration
- Good firmness
- Good conservation

Tolerances / Resistances

- TYLCV (Tomato Yellow Leaf Curled Virus)
- Very good tolerance to Bacterial Wilt - IR (Ralstonia solanacearum) - IR
- Resistant to Fusarium (Fol.0 et Fol.1) - HR
- Resistant to TMV(0) and to Verticillium - HR