

Onion RED ALBASA

Allium cepa L.

RED ALBASA is a new short day onion variety, Galmi type, with a deep red color and a globe shape. This variety offers you an homogeneous harvest in bulb size and shape. If kept in proper conditions, RED ALBASA has a very good shelflife. In Sahelian area, the best sowing period is from September to November.

Bulb

- Red
- Globe shape
- Medium size
- Pungent

Maturity

- 95-100 days after planting

Storage

- Good storage ability (in a well ventilated room and protected from rain)

Plant

- Vigorous